

The Word of God

Lyrics: Daniel Mitsui
Melody: Brandon P. Otto

1. Ver-bum De - i De - o na - tum, He who spun the broad stel - la - tum,
2. Ver-bum Pa - tris hu - ma - na - tur. He who par - ted sky from wa - ter,
4. Ver-bum Pa - tris mun - do ful - sit. He who made the world and rules it

Set in se - quence day and night, And gave to each its re - gent light
Held the four winds in His fist, And wrapped the sea in clouds and mist
To its last age from its first And brings re - demp - tion to the cursed

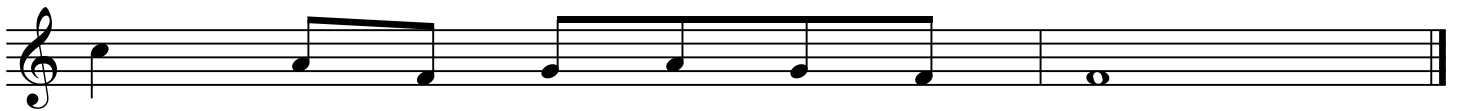

Lies in a man - ger swad - dled tight.
Is by His Vir - gin Mo - ther kissed.
Is by His Vir - gin Mo - ther nursed

3. Ver-bum ca - ro fac - tum e - st. The God who found - ed East and West and
5. Pu - er no - bis na - tum e - st. The boy who sleeps at Ma - ry's breast Is

North and South and filled them all With things that run and walk and crawl
He who rides and strikes with swords The se - ven - hea - ded mons - ter's hordes:

Lies The King of Kings - ded and catt - le of stall Lords.

Melody inspired by Puer Jesus, Magnificat antiphon for Second Vespers of the Sunday within the Octave of Christmas, in Liber Usualis (Tournai, 1935), 437